Center for Creative Works

241 East Lancaster Ave,
Wynnewood, PA, 19096

The Center for Creative Works is a unique, arts-based vocational program for adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities. We provide a creative, generative atmosphere for our artists to work in diverse media and can explore professional techniques, work with new materials, and develop their personal visual expression. Our gallery hosts bi-monthly exhibitions curated by our staff of professional artists. The Center for Creative Works is a vivid, engaging place where artists with all types of abilities come together to inspire each other, learn, and work side by side.

DOUG.

Doug. is an exhibition of recent works by mixed media artist Douglas Tan, curated by Virginia Fleming and Laine Godsey. The artworks move fluidly between drawing, painting and sculpture; celebrating the range in the artist's passion and imperative to express himself in multiple mediums.

When curating the pieces for this, Tan's first solo exhibition, it was the artist's deep and joyful pleasure in working that became the thread that bound each work to the next. Doug is driven, vigorous and exuberant about his mark-making, layering and color technique. His desire to create is insatiable and spirited. There exists a frenetic energy, an urgency and a need in the line quality of all of Tan's pieces. The movement of his hand can be sweeping and bold or condensed and labor intensive. Doug's artwork evokes a visceral response; his vitality is encapsulated in every mark he makes.
